

4. Schedule for research

The Ministry of Health and Welfare is scheduled to conduct the research on endocrine disruptors given in the table below. The results will be reported after each study. Study methods and schedules may be changed, depending on the scientific findings to be obtained.